TIME HAS COME TODAY

Time has come today
Young hearts can go their way
Can't put it off another day
I don't care what others say
They say we don't listen anyway
Time has come today

The rules have changed today
I have no place to stay
I'm thinking about the subway
The Lord has flown away
My tears have come and gone
Oh, my Lord I have to roam
I have no home
I have no home

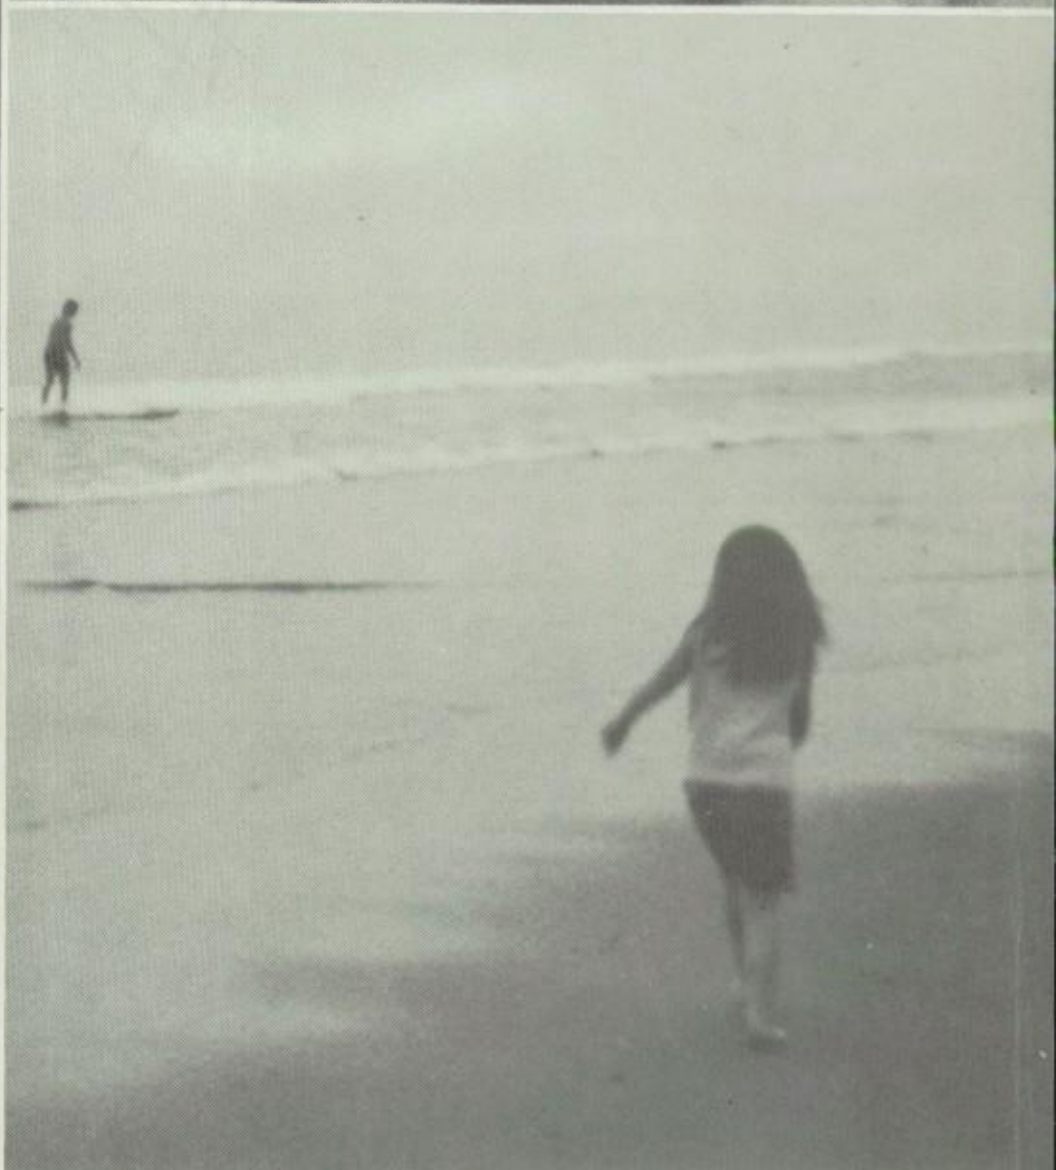

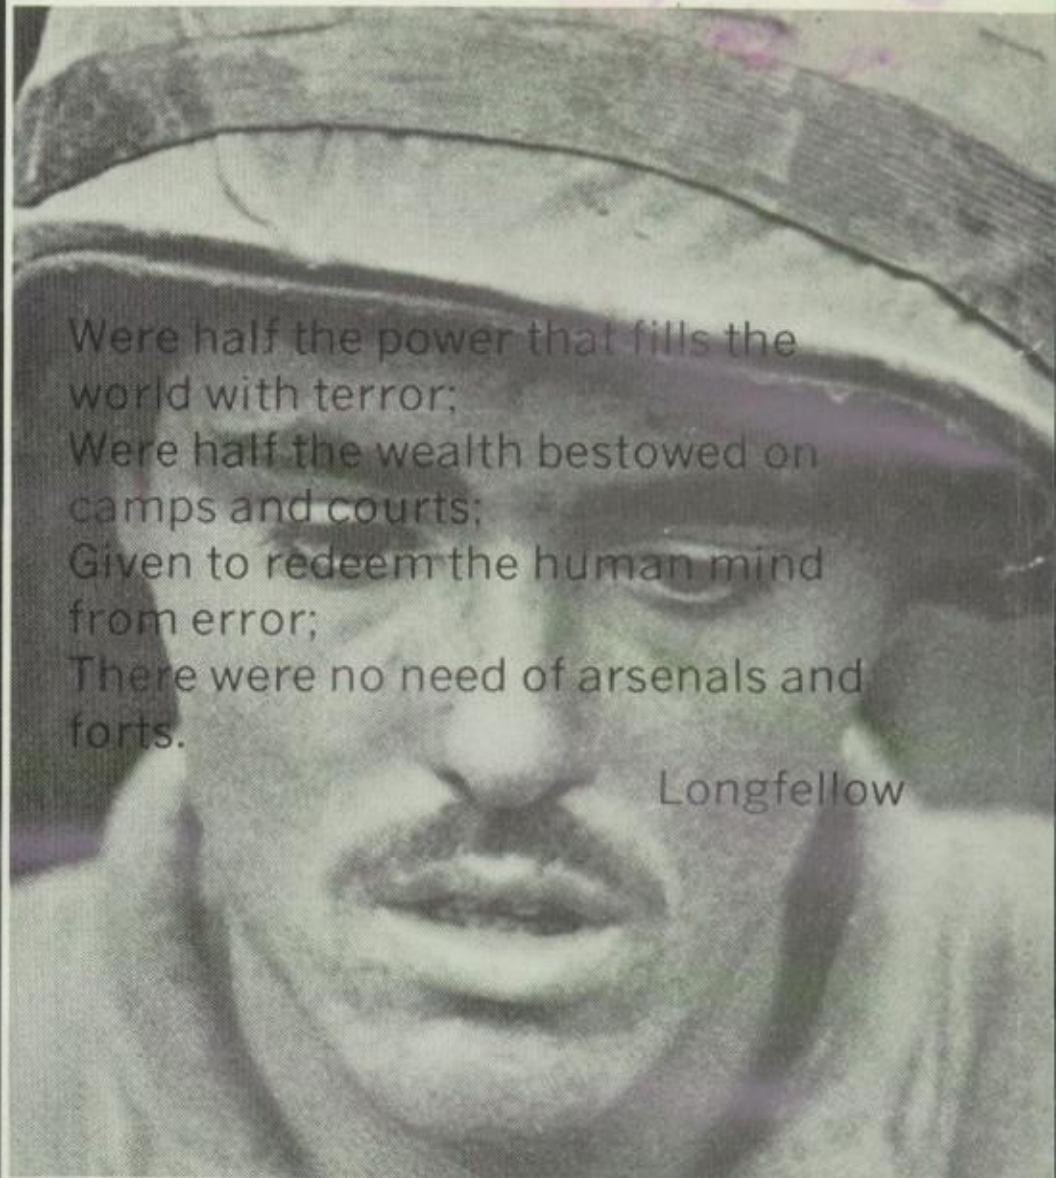

Now the time has come
No place to run
I might get burned up by the sun
but I've had my fun
I've been loved and put aside
I've been crushed by tumbling tides
And my soul's been psychedelized

Now the time has come
There are things to realize
Time has come today

Sue and Kevin

This year homecoming was a big success. The princesses, their escorts and the floats were both imaginative and colorful in carrying out the theme "It's a small world." It was difficult for judges to decide on a winning float, but finally it was agreed that the class of '69's pledge for peace was the winner.

The class of '70 celebrated Valentines Day with "Heart and Soul", the theme of this years Junior Prom. The "Soul" was supplied by the "Bering Strait", a musical group of young men. The "Heart" was produced with the traditional Valentine decorations and all the misty eyed young couples that filled the gym.

Now the time has come
No place to run
I might get burned up by the sun
but I've had my fun

I've been crushed by the tumbling tides
And my soul's been psychedelized . . .
